My portrait work is often published in various magazines, books and articles. Please initial here if I have your permission to feature your completed portrait in these publications.

_____

A portrait is more than just capturing a likeness. A portrait is a unique blend of appearance, personality and the artist's vision. You have seen my work and today honor me as your choice of portrait artist and I thank you for that. I pledge to do my utmost to deliver a pleasing portrait that captures both likeness and personality.

I will deliver the portrait to you, when the final balance is paid. If minor are changes requested, I will be happy to re-work the portrait at no extra cost, but they must be agreed upon by the second installment or there will be fees for additional man-hours, materials and re-design. Fees are only for the original artwork and do not include copyrights or reproduction rights, which remain with the artist.

I understand that by signing this contract I agree to the terms above.
